Part D Fraud Prevention How to Recognize & Report It

Enjoy a power morning with Professional Women in Healthcare. Join local industry women for a great networking and educational event.

Come hear Anne Louise Smith discuss how to recognize and report Part D Fraud and how to prevent it. In addition, network with industry friends and colleagues in a relaxed setting.

Our Presenter Anne Louise Smith

Anne Louise Smith is Chief of Corporate Investigations for CVS Caremark. She heads the company's Medicare Part D fraud prevention efforts and is a nationally-recognized expert on the topic. She has been with CVS Caremark since 1998, when it was known as PCS Health Systems.

Anne Louise found her talent of detecting fraud with each job she has held, from detecting theft of insurance premiums at a life insurance company to narcotics and anesthesia theft at an urban hospital where she worked as a hospital administrator.

Anne Louise is president of the Arizona Chapter of NADDI, the National Association of Drug Diversion Investigators. She enjoys speaking and educating people on healthcare fraud issues and is frequently called upon to train federal and state law enforcement on Part D fraud detection.

Anne Louise is a graduate of Bucknell University in Pennsylvania and a proud native of the Midwest.
