Stop Whining and Start Succeeding: Leadership in a Challenging Economy | Eileen Krantz

Even during a challenging economy, you can still focus on success. The secret is capitalizing on what you have rather than worrying about resources you don't have. In this session, learn how to refocus your mindset by focusing on your assets, tools, and talents and aligning them with your goals. Discover how to:

- Lead rather than manage
- Build a path that leads to success
- Focus on talent rather than experience
- Develop yourself by reflecting on what you are learning and accomplishing

PWH/HIDA Inspirational Award (Jana Quinn Spirit Award)

In memory of Jana Quinn, the members of PWH have created the PWH/HIDA Inspirational Award (Jana Quinn Spirit Award). This award is presented annually and will go to an inspirational person in the medical industry, male or female. Nominees should be individuals who define their success not only professionally, but in life. For more details contact Mary-Anne Disimile at mdisimil@its.jnj.com. Submit your nomination at www.mypwh.org by July 1, 2010.

The Award winner will be announced during the HIDA 2010 MedSurg Conference & Expo™ at the Opening General Session.
