

ATLANTA REGIONAL EVENT - OCTOBER 5

Atlanta's Professional Women in Healthcare Share Their Resources

Let's get to know our Atlanta counterparts and share resources that help us do our jobs better. To help get the conversation going, MDSI has donated a complimentary bar tab of $100. This event is BYOCC - bring your own credit card!

*An Evening

INFORMATION

DATE:

October 5, 2010
6:00pm

Please let us know by Friday, October 1st if you can make it, so we are sure to have enough space reserved!

SCHEDULE:

- Introduce ourselves, our roles in healthcare, our biggest challenges and how we overcome them.
- Review the resources available on the PWH website. We'd like to get your feedback on how we can make this site even more useful for you.
- Brief overview of MDSI's Education OnLine (EOL), online training for medical and dental distributor sales reps, and of The Major Accounts Exchange Online Education (MOE) for supply chain reps. All attendees get complimentary enrollment in EOL.
- Plan our next Regional Connection, slated for mid February, a panel discussion.

Leading the Discussion Rachel Bailey

Rachel develops online training for MDSI which is designed to help sales and marketing reps in the healthcare supply chain, including medical and dental distribution sales reps, grow their business.
